Ariesthon James B. Milar

IT STUDENT | ASPIRING IT PROFESSIONAL

Email: ariesthonjames27@gmail.com | address: [Calao East P-6 Santiago City, Isabela, Philippines]

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Motivated Bachelor of Science in Information Technology (BSIT) student at Northeasthern College with an interest in frontend and web development, computer troubleshooting, networking, and database management. Eager to apply classroom learning to practical projects, strengthen technical problem-solving skills, and continue developing as an IT professional.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Information Technology (BSIT)

Northeasthern College | [Expected graduation year]

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Frontend Development	Fundamentals of building user-facing website interfaces.
Web Development	Website structure, styling, and web application concepts.
Computer Troubleshooting	Basic systematic troubleshooting and technical problem-solving.
Networking	Networking concepts, connectivity, and basic network support.
Database Management	Database concepts, organizing information, and working with structured data.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

System Management System | Academic / Personal Project

Developed or contributed to a system management project intended to organize records and support management tasks. Add the actual features, tools or programming languages used, and your specific contribution before submitting.

• Replace this description with accurate project details. • Add a link or repository if available.

TRAINING & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

TESDA Training / Certification

Add the exact course or qualification title, training provider, completion date, and certificate details. Only list a certification as completed if you have earned it.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Professional interests: Web development, IT support, networking, and database systems.

Before submitting: replace all bracketed placeholders, verify the official school name, and remove any details that are not accurate.